

Dear KOLA Members,

On behalf of the 2017 KOLA Board and the City of Henderson, I want to invite you to attend our 2017 KOLA Fall Conference. It will be held September 13-15, 2017, here in Henderson at the newly remodeled Ramada Inn at 2044 Hwy 41 N. As we are a smaller city, we are limited on the number of hotels we have. Fortunately, the Ramada Inn is large enough to accommodate our number of guests and our classroom needs.

I am very excited to be hosting this year's conference here in Western Kentucky and I hope everyone will benefit from the speakers we have lined up. Some are experienced KOLA members and others we've arranged to have come to us from other areas.

We are planning a wonderfully relaxing Thursday night evening at one of Henderson County's wineries, Farmer and A Frenchman located at 12522 Hwy 41 S, Robards, KY. There will be delicious food, laid-back music, and a beautiful country atmosphere. If you choose, you may also participate in wine-tasting. This will be at your own expense, but is very reasonably priced. You will also be able to learn a little on how the grapes go from the vine to the bottle. There will be transportation available provided by the City of Henderson's Area Rapid Transit buses.

The official agenda will be available soon. Sign-in for registered attendees will begin on Wednesday, September 13, at 12 noon, Central Time, and we will get things going at 1:00 p.m.

Please complete each part of the registration so we can make every accommodation possible for your visit.

I truly hope you are able to join us this year to celebrate KOLA's Sweet 16!

Sincerely,

Helen Keaton
